Soirée at the Stone Manor

A fundraiser in support of the Grosse Pointe Historical Society and Gianna House

On Thursday, June 20, 2024, the Grosse Pointe Historical Society will hold its 20th annual Summer Fundraiser Gala. This year's event, Soirée at the Stone Manor, will be held at a contemporary home built for the ages. In the tradition of great Grosse Pointe houses, it features stone, slate, timber, custom metal work, vintage and re-purposed materials, tile and decorative finishes sourced from around the globe and carefully constructed by craftsmen to provide a family home destined to endure for decades.

A musical afterglow to the main event will benefit Gianna House Pregnancy and Parenting Residence in Eastpointe.

The Grosse Pointe Historical Society

The Grosse Pointe Historical Society (GPHS) was founded in 1945 to preserve and protect the rich local heritage of all five Grosse Pointes and neighboring communities, and share it with the public. GPHS works to make history of our area vital, relevant, and accessible. The Grosse Pointe Historical Society Campus includes the c. 1823 Provencal-Weir restored ribbon farm house, the c. 1840 Log Cabin, and the Grosse Pointe History Center, which houses exhibition and activities spaces, administrative offices and the Alfred B. and Ruth S. Moran Resource Center.

GPHS collections include maps, blueprints, documents, bills, contracts, letters, books, catalogs, photographs, videos, prints, drawings watercolors, scrapbooks, oral histories, albums, real estate records and additional ephemera relating to the history of the Grosse Pointes and neighboring communities as well as objects, tools, household goods and furniture.
